Dear Bill:

Thanks for contacting us regarding your interest in securing representation for your script, Beverly Hills Cop IV, which is sure to blueprint a hum-dinger of a movie!!

For me to represent you in this endeavor I will do what I do for all promising new clients:

For a small retainer fee of only 499 dollars, I will represent your work.

Just leave it to me, and all your interests will be represented, not just in the sale of your marvie script, but should there be any legal discrepancies...

I wear two hats!!

Yes, I will sue to shreds anyone who messes with your original work!!

Now, you have assured me this is an original screenplay, despite the #4 after it's title? Well, if so, we're in business because you created some amazing characters.

A movie with characters this great should have been made already!! And have starred someone like Eddie Murphy, believe you me!!!

If this isn't a natural hit, you can sue ME and call me Betty the Dealbreaker from here until eternity!!!

Bill, you're a star!!!

For just 499 dollars, that star can shine!!!

Yours Truly,

*Howie—I mean. Well, call me Dirk
See you soon, at the movies!!!!
(I actually don't watch movies too much,
believe it or not!!!) lol
;))))))*
